

Cambodian National Assembly President Samdech Akka Moha Ponhea Chakrei Heng Samrin met here on Mar. 15 with H.E. Laode Ida, Deputy Speaker of Regional Senate of the Republic of Indonesia.

In the meeting, H.E. Laode Ida told Samdech Heng Samrin that his visit to Cambodia is aimed to seek Cambodia's support for Indonesian Regional Senate's candidacy as a full member of the ASEAN Inter-Parliament Assembly (AIPA).

In reply, Samdech Heng Samrin welcomed and pledged to discuss Indonesia's proposal with other AIPA member countries.

He also expressed thanks to Indonesia for its role as co-chairman of Paris Peace Conference on Cambodia and its active contribution to help resolve the border issue between Cambodia and Thailand.

Earlier on Mar. 14, H.E. Laode Ida also met with H.E. Cheam Yeap, Chairman of Economy, Finance, Banking and Audit Commission of the National Assembly and Head of Cambodian AIPA Group.
