

Cambodian Prime Minister Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen leads his government officials to the Embassy of Japan in Phnom Penh this morning to lay wreath and pay tribute to the souls of Japanese people killed by the recent earthquake and tsunami.

On the occasion, Premier Samdech Techo Hun Sen writes on the book of condolences expressing Cambodia's profound condolences on this tragic losses and great suffering.