

Statement of National Committee for World Heritage

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 01 June 2011 13:51 - Last Updated Wednesday, 01 June 2011 13:54

---

ROYAUME DU CAMBODGE
NATION INDÉPENDANCE SOUVERAINETÉ

COMITE NATIONAL
DU PATRIMOINE MONDIAL

Phnom Penh, 30 May 2011

STATEMENT

The National Committee for World Heritage wishes to express its appreciation for the outstanding efforts made by the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in order to ensure that the World Heritage Convention is able to continue to operate in Cambodia in the best possible conditions.

As an outcome from the visit to Cambodia and Thailand in February 2011 by the Director General, the Executive Director, and the Director General of UNESCO, the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, and the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in Phnom Penh on 25 May 2011 and in Bangkok on 26 May 2011.

During the meeting, the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, and the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, expressed their appreciation for the work of the National Committee for World Heritage and the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in Phnom Penh on 25 May 2011 and in Bangkok on 26 May 2011. The Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, also expressed her appreciation for the work of the National Committee for World Heritage and the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in Phnom Penh on 25 May 2011 and in Bangkok on 26 May 2011.

Participants at the meeting in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, and Bangkok, Thailand, expressed their appreciation for the work of the National Committee for World Heritage and the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in Phnom Penh on 25 May 2011 and in Bangkok on 26 May 2011. The Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, also expressed her appreciation for the work of the National Committee for World Heritage and the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in Phnom Penh on 25 May 2011 and in Bangkok on 26 May 2011.

The National Committee for World Heritage wishes to express its appreciation for the outstanding efforts made by the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in order to ensure that the World Heritage Convention is able to continue to operate in Cambodia in the best possible conditions. The Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, also expressed her appreciation for the work of the National Committee for World Heritage and the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, in Phnom Penh on 25 May 2011 and in Bangkok on 26 May 2011.

The Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, said, "The world's cultural heritage should be a source of pride for all."

COMITE NATIONAL
DU PATRIMOINE MONDIAL

ROYAUME DU CAMBODGE
NATION INDÉPENDANCE SOUVERAINETÉ

Phnom Penh, 30 May 2011