Statement

Spokesman of the Ministry of National Defense

Upon and again the act of aggression on the part of the Thai military against to cause damage to Cambodia despite the agreement reached between Cambodia-Thai military commander on military Region South and Border commander of Chantrea Leuk. The Royal Cambodian Armed Forces considered and regard this as an act of aggression. This is the first time that the Thai military violated the ceasefire agreement and provoked and ignited violence and attacked against Cambodia while not complying on an essential condition.

The Royal Cambodian Armed Forces call on the Thai military to have the agreement reached and to implement the ceasefire completely and effectively so as to preserve the peace from violence the military or civilian that involved across. All arms and military that presently exist must be removed from the area of aggression from the Thai military.

The Royal Cambodian Armed Forces are maintaining their neutral position despite the act of force. The Royal Cambodian Armed Forces are maintaining their right to self-defense and their obligation to respond proportionately in response to the attack by the Thai military in guarding the national sovereignty.
