2. Following the discussion, they reaffirm the Statement of the Chair of ASEAN following the Informal Meeting of the Foreign Ministers of ASEAN on 22 February 2011 and the Chairman Statement of the 17th ASEAN Summit in Nov 2011, as follows:

"We emphasized the underlying norm and principle of ASEAN that differences between ASEAN Member States should be amicably resolved in the spirit of ASEAN Guidelines, in accordance with the principles contained in the Treaty of Amity and Cooperation in Southeast Asia (TAC) and the ASEAN Charter.

We welcomed Cambodia's and Thailand's commitment to peacefully resolve their differences through mutual dialogue and cooperation with a view to achieving mutually acceptable solution through the AMM utilization of their existing bilateral mechanisms, with appropriate engagement of Indonesia, current Chair of ASEAN. In this regard, we appreciate that Cambodia and Thailand have agreed on the use of the Treaty of Amity (TOA) as the Indonesian Chairmen Team (ICT) in the affected areas following the guidelines in February 2011 and encourage the attainment of an agreement conducive to their engagement. We also expressed our appreciation and support for the continuing effort of Indonesia, current Chair of ASEAN, to facilitate the process through its appropriate engagement which would help advance our collective efforts to attain the ASEAN Community."
