

Ten government institutions and non-governmental organizations gathered here on June 2 at the Planning Workshop on Strengthening ASEAN Agreement on Disaster Management and Emergency Response Partnerships in Cambodia.

On the occasion, H.E. Ros Sovann, Head of National Emergency Coordination Center and Deputy Secretary General of National Committee for Disaster Management brought about the works of the ASEAN agreement on disaster management and emergency relief as well as regional cooperation on the issue.

According to Mr. Ros Sovann, Cambodia is strengthening its human resource and mechanism in natural disaster prevention, especially the regional cooperation.
