

Cambodia's National Assembly will continue its 6th session next week, due to be presided over by National Assembly President Samdech Akka Moha Ponhea Chakrei Heng Samrin.

In a news release issued on June 9 by the National Assembly's Secretariat, the national assembly will discuss a series of draft laws dealing with the endorsement to an agreement on tri-junction point of land boundaries of Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam; the amendment to the treaty of friendship and cooperation in Southeast Asia; and the payment assurance made by royal government to Cambodian International Investment Development Group Co. Ltd.
