

Cambodian Send 32 Soldiers to Multinational Peacekeeping Exercise in Mongolia

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 09 August 2011 17:39 -

Cambodian Ministry of National Defense send 32 arm personnel to a multinational peacekeeping exercise code-named 'Khaan Quest 2011', Ministry's spokesman said.

Khaan Quest 2011 began in Mongolia from July 29 to August 13, he said.

This multinational peacekeeping exercise attended by 11 countries, including Cambodia, the United States, Japan, South Korea, Australia, Canada, India, Germany, Indonesia, and Singapore.

Last year, Cambodia is the hosted country. Cambodia has sent some soldiers to joint the peacekeeping forces in Sudan, Chad, and Lebanon.