

Lok Chumteav Bun Rany Hun Sen, President of Cambodian Red Cross (CRC) has recently distributed the relief aid to some 2,157 flood-affected families in Baray district, Kampong Thom province. On the occasion, Lok Chumteav Bun Rany Hun Sen expressed her regret over the losses of lives as well as the damages caused by the devastating floods. She also encouraged farmers to take care of their health and to further boost their rice production and other subsidiary crops.