- Honorable Jeeb De Venencia, Founding Chairman of ICAPP,
- Honorable Ching Sayong, Chairman of the Standing Committee and Secretary General of the ICAPP,
- Honorable Chan Sopha, Chairman, Bin Kasam, Chairman of the Organizing Committee of ICAPP Conference on Natural Disasters and Environmental Protection,
- Honorable Members of ICAPP Standing Committee,
- Excellencies, Ladies and Gentlemen,

On behalf of the Cambodian People's Party (CPP), it is a great honor for me to deliver my remarks at this 15th Meeting of the Standing Committee of the International Conference of Asian Political Parties (ICAPP) on the auspicious occasion. I would like to express my appreciation and thanks to the United Malay National Organisation (UMNO) for hosting the 15th Meeting of the ICAPP Standing Committee and the ICAPP Conference on Natural Disasters and Environmental Protection here in the city of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

As you are well aware, in collaboration with the FUNCINPEC party, the Cambodian People's Party (CPP) issued the 1st Meeting of the Standing Committee and 1st General Assembly of the ICAPP under the theme of "Shared Goals for a Better Tomorrow" with specific emphasis on economy, energy and environment, last December, as an expression of our commitment to act fully in the program of the ICAPP.

I wish to inform you all that the 1st General Assembly of the ICAPP and its related meetings were successfully held in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, from the 1st to 4th of December, 2010. Leaders and representatives of the political parties and 6 international organizations from 43 countries in Asia and other continents attended and made contributions at these events. The historic "Shared Peace Declaration" was unanimously adopted at the conclusion of the Assembly. The Prime Minister Declaration is a testimony to our commitment, as political parties, to a better tomorrow for all people based on inclusive economic growth, poverty reduction,
