Press Communiqué of the Spokesman of the Ministry of National Defense
On the situation at the Cambodia-Thailand border

On Sunday, 24 April 2011, at 09:45, Thailand's aggression forces launched a heavy assault against our Cambodian territory in Thmei Chreu area, with the support of thousands of rounds of gunfire. At the same time, Thailand's aggression forces to enter some the first batches of heavy weapons into Koh Khor area, Bantei Angkor District, Uthole-Monivong Province, which is a heavily populated region.

In 2002, Thailand's aggression forces again advanced further into the area of Tanoung Temple, Subpreahvi, Thai military forces pushed ahead with their force attack in order to take control over Tanoung Temple.

As of now, the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces are still fighting with great courage to defend Cambodia's territorial integrity.
