

Deputy Prime Minister HOR Namhong's Letter to Thai Foreign Minister 04/04/2011

KINGDOM OF CAMBODIA

NATION - RELIGION - KING

Prinly Sam Rainsy
Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of the Royal Palace

Phnom Penh, 04 April 2011

His Excellency Mr. Kasit Pongpa
Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of Thailand

Excellency,

I am very pleased to receive Your Excellency's letter dated 1 April 2011, in which you stated that "... as invited by the Thai-Cambodia Joint Boundary Commission (JBC) Meeting, Thailand is ready to consider the Meeting on 28 April 2011 in曼谷, Thailand."

In this regard, I would like to recall to Your Excellency the letter dated 1 April 2011 that we both have received from H.E. Dr. E.M. Marry M. Nantapan, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Indonesia, along with the Program of Activities of the Thai-Cambodia JBC and CEC, Minutes and Minutes of Progress of Activities. In this sense, the Foreign Minister of Indonesia proposed to host the Meeting of the Thai-Cambodia JBC and CEC, as well as Meetings of the Foreign Ministers of Cambodia, Thailand and Indonesia, on 28 April 2011 in曼谷, Indonesia.

Therefore, I would like to make it CLEAR that, up to now, Cambodia has never concerned to any meeting other than those proposed and invited by Indonesia.

Please accept, Excellency the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

HOR Namhong
